

We are documentary and branded content creators. We forge meaningful messages that delight and inspire.

TYPE-C

TYPE-C is a collective of creatives, filmmakers and artists, providing story-driven productions tailored for a global audience. We are a creative atelier that celebrates the endless possibilities of imagination. We dig into our extensive international network and bring the best people together for each project. French-German Founder and Creative Director Cyril Eberle has lived, worked in and travelled over 100 countries contributing a global mix of experience to each production. We push the boundaries in this progressive changing world. From creation to launch, we believe in delivering our full vision; end to end, and never compromising on its unique story. In a constantly changing and saturated digital landscape, nothing less than exceptional quality and a great story will be remembered.

[Illustrated Interviews]

An illustrated interview is an effective way to build brand authority and create a more personal connection. Simple, yet elegant animations bring the message to life.

[Animation & explainer videos]

Animation has the power to transform a complex idea into an entertaining and immersive experience.

[Commercials & brand videos]

Brand films provide a unique way to visually and emotionally connect with your target audience, getting them involved based on how we make them feel.

Visa Enablers Event Opening Video \ Singapore

[Event content]

We create in-person and virtual events that speak to your audience intelligently and with credibility. We apply our expertise in film production, event knowledge, and storytelling to crafting opening videos, walk-ons, interactive guest engagements and post-event highlight videos that stand out from the crowd.

Visa Enablers Highlights Video \ Singapore

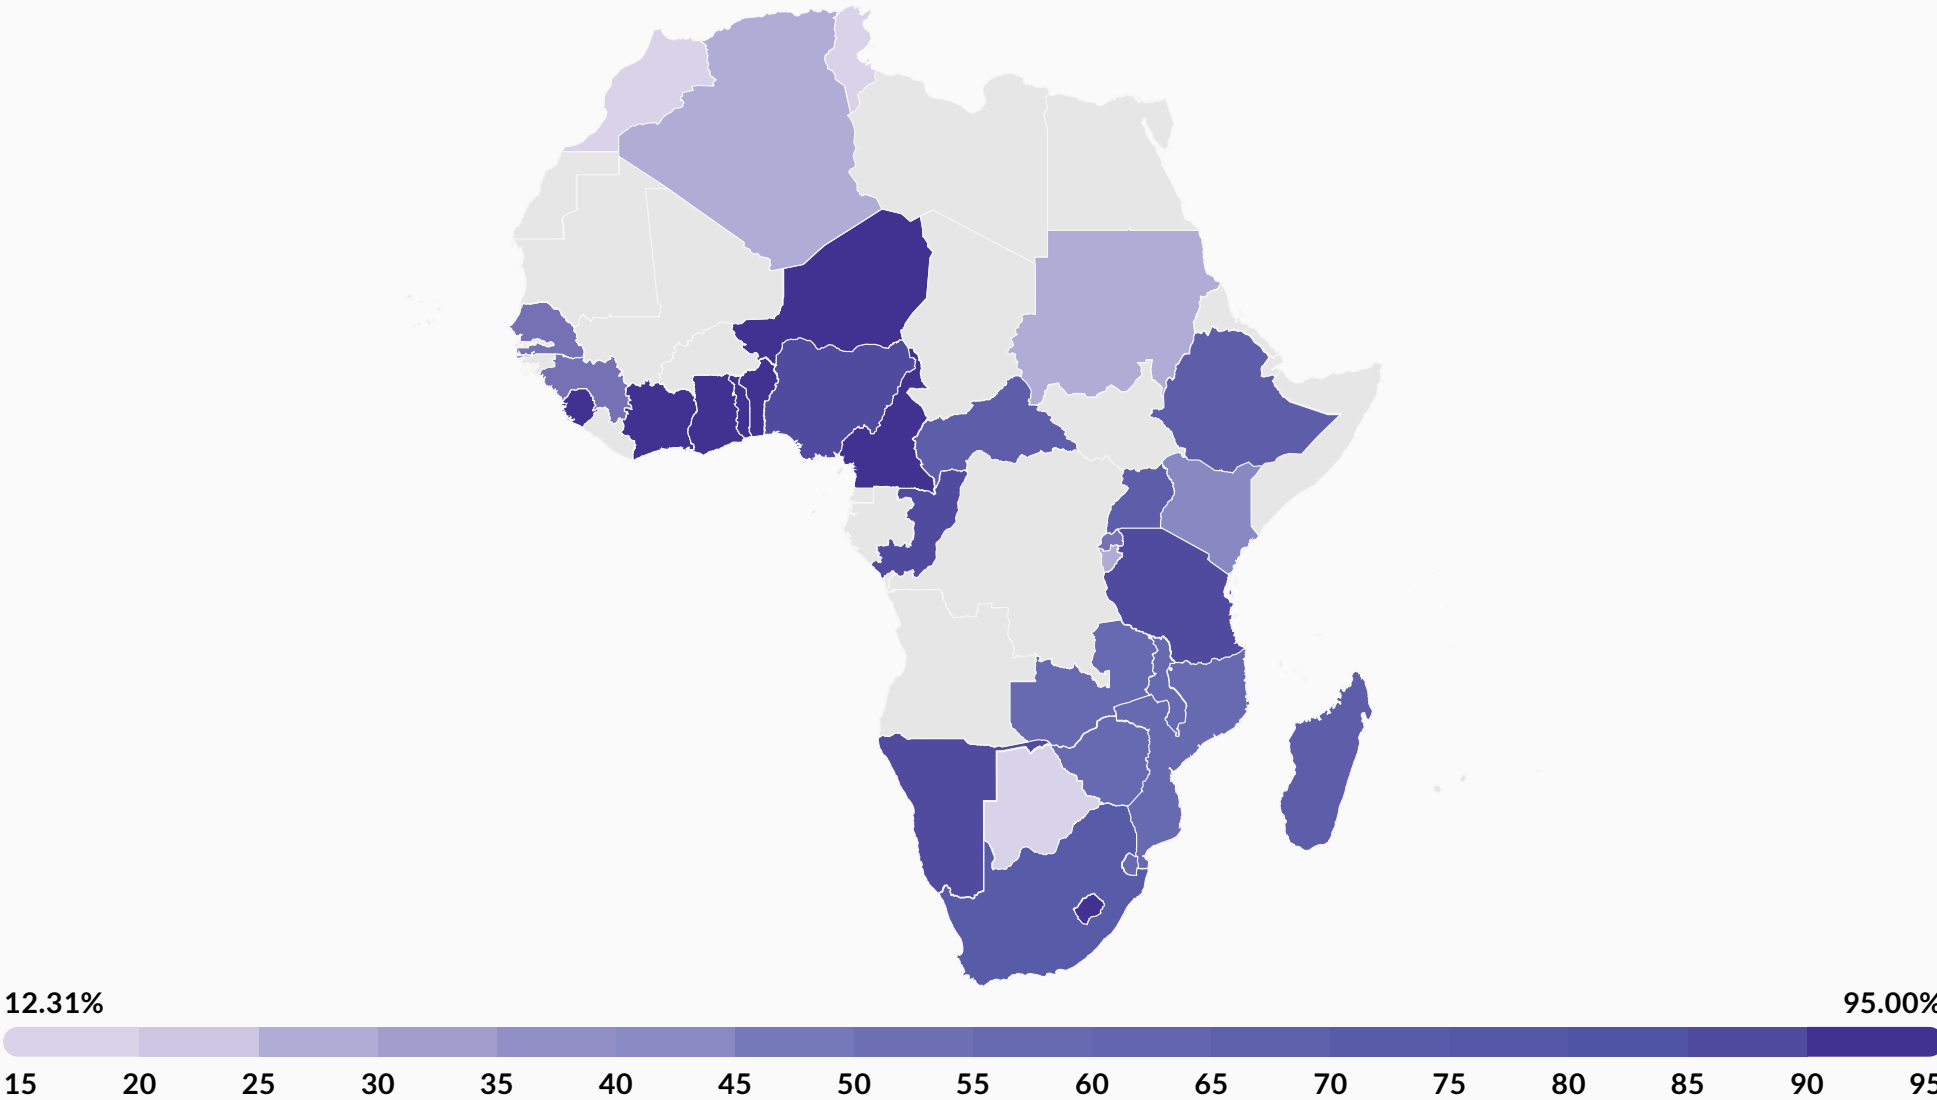

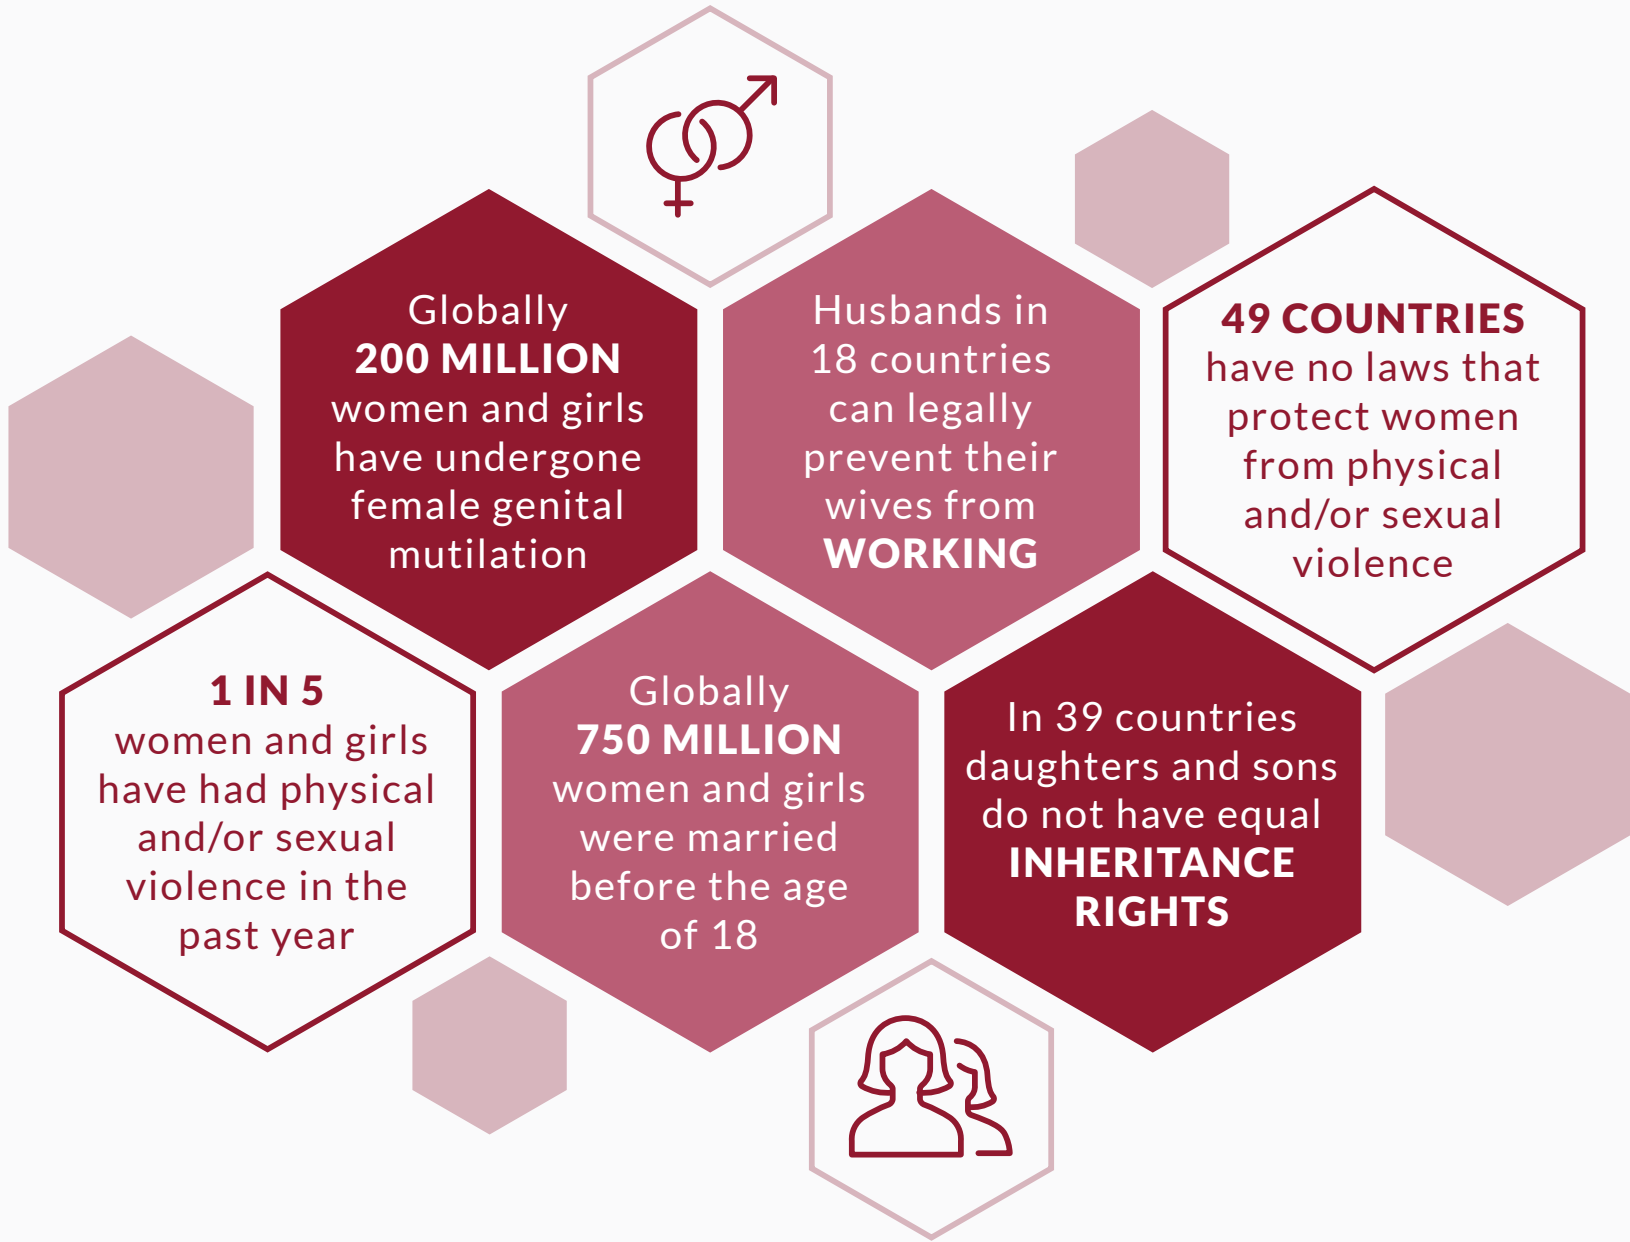

Audi TT \ Pins

New Year 2012 Opening Film \ EMAAR

[Interactives]

Digital interactives are memorable, immersive experiences designed to engage, enlighten and persuade. Combining data, visuals and narrative, interactive content can bring complex data sets to life, not only with analysis but also with human-centric stories that users can discover at their own leisure.

[Data visualisation]

Data visualisation allows you to deep-dive content such as quarterly or annual reports... white papers or research reports in a way that's visually engaging and fun-to-use. No more 100 page reports that no one but the regulators reads!
